LOCAL NOTES.

Our job department turned out work for Attorney Dickson this week.
The Cottonwood and Beaver lines will play ball at this place to-morrow.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reas, of Liberal, were business visitors in Beaver Saturday.
Dyke Ballinger made final proof on 160 acres of Beaver county land last Saturday.
Jas. K. Hitch of Roy was in the city Saturday as a witness in a final proof matter.
B. E. Steadman, wife and little daughter of Woodward, are visiting their many friends in Beaver.
Gene Groves and R. H. Loybourn have been confined to the house with sickness since their return from Liberal.
Alonso Vantassel of Logan is attending the reunion today, and called in and handed us $1.50 on subscription.
A. N. Cranmer has just received the the largest and best stock of general merchandise ever opened in Beaver, and will be pleased to have you call and get his prices.
Miss Bertha Groves is expected home from Eureka Springs, Ark., next week. Her mother, who is improving in health much to the delight of her many friends, will remain at the Springs for some time.
Just as we go to press we learn that the Supreme Court of the Territory has decided that all County Warrants issued in excess of 4 per cent of the assessed valuation for the preceding year are not a binding obligation against the County.
It is believed that this decision will prevent our County from funding its outstanding warrant indebtedness.

Miss Ada Weir went to Meade Sunday and took the train Monday for Kearney, Iowa where she will remain two years with relatives during which time she will attend school and receive instructions in music.

Norman Hamilton and family of Kansas City, Mo., arrived in Beaver yesterday and contemplate making this county their home. Mr. Hamilton is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H.
Hamilton, living south of town and a brother of Mrs. H. Mott.

The Beaver school did not commence Monday as was announced owing to the fact that Mr. Daves, the gentleman employed to teach the school did not return from a trip east until yesterday.

The agricultural display at Liberal during the reunion was just as good as you will see in any country and we noticed the names of some of our Beaver county farmers attached to several of the best exhibits.

Several Beaver people who attended the reunion at Liberal are on the sick list and it is thought by some that the sickness is due to eating ice cream that had stood for a time in cans not properly cleaned; but the general supposition is that they indulged too freely in "biled owl."

Beaver county was represented at the reunion at Liberal last week, there being about one hundred present from different parts of the county, and they all expressed themselves as being well pleased with the manner in which they were entertained by the Liberal people.

Beaver Hotel Arrivals.

C. O. Tannehill, Newton Pickett, G. T. Walker, Clear Lake; Chas. Bird-sell, Custer; R. F. Sinclair, Bluegrass; J. L. Dickerson, Nye; Harry Reas and wife, Liberal Ks; J. K. Hitch, Della Hitch, J. A. Cox, Roy; S. J. Keras, Gate; J. L. Slaven, County.

An exchange tells of a brakeman of a literary turn of mind who recently embraced religion and immediately composed the following prayer:

"O, Lord! now that I have flagged then, lift my feet from off the rough road of life and plant them safely on the dock of the train of salvation! Let me use the safety lamp known as prudence, make all couplings in the train with the strong link of thy love, and let my lamp be the Bible!"

And, Heavenly Father, keep all switches closed that lead off on sidings, especially those with a blind end! O, Lord, if it be thy pleasure, have every emphatic black along the line show the white light of hope, that I may make the run of life without stopping.

And, Lord, give us the ten commandments as a schedule, and when I have finished the run and have, on schedule time, pulled into the great dark station of death, may thou, the superintendent of the universe, say, with a smile:
"Well done, thou good and faithful servant, come and sign the pay roll and receive your check for eternal happiness."

Gate City Gossip.

Oh, what lovely weather!
Those who attended from these parts the quarterly and basket meeting at Elm Grove last Sunday were Rev. Walker, R. O. Barber, J. C. Grasham, S. P. Kerns, Mr. Geo. Grasham sr., Henry Pieratt, Geo. Longmore, the Misses Kerns and Nuckolls. They all reported having enjoyed two excellent sermons from Elder Rose.

The arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Grasham from Wapello, Iowa was quite a surprise to their children. They expect to make quite a visit with relatives and friends.
John Kerns went to Englewood last Sunday. There must be some great attraction there from the number of times he has gone recently.

Bleed hands are in demand in these parts.
Quite a good deal of feed will go to waste on account of it not being put up at the proper time.

R. W. Hubbard & Co. are getting along nicely with the broom corn cutting.

Wm. Innis was seen on our streets Monday as happy as a lark--it's a girl, and the little Miss arrived in time to spend the Sabbath with her parents.

Mrs. R. W. Hubbard is on the sick report this week.

Geo. Longmore went to work at the G ranch last Monday.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 13, 1895.
No event in the history of sport has excited so much interest shown in the races between the American yacht "Defender" and the English challenger "Valkyrie III," which have taken place off the coast of New Jersey near Seabright. Not since the "Vigilant" defeated "Valkyrie II" in 1893, in the international contest has been kept well in mind, and the enthusiasm displayed on Saturday last was merely the outcome of the pent-up feeling of the past year or two.
Politics and everything else here in the East seem to have been forgotten for the present in the discussion of the yacht races. The first race was won by the "Defender" on Saturday by 8 minutes and 49 seconds. The race of Tuesday has been awarded to the "Defender" on account of a foul. And the "Defender" has been awarded the race of yesterday. We will, therefore, keep the America's Cup on this side for another year or so and give the English another chance in the future to show their prowess.

The latest rumor here is that the President will again nominate Mr. Hornblower, of New York, whom Mr. Hill defeated for the Supreme Bench during the last Congress, to succeed Justice Jackson, and that Mr. Hill will not this time oppose his confirmation.

Gold is still going out of this country at a rapid rate, and the Treasury reserve is now nearly $3,000,000 below limit. On the 9th, last gold to the amount of $1,300,000 was withdrawn from the sub-treasury for shipment to Europe the next day. Ex-Director of the Mint Leach has made a proposition that the New York banks give up one-fourth of their gold holdings until the present drain is over.

In our recent weekly letter we spoke of the battle Senator Quay had just won in Pennsylvania politics. Well, the Pennsylvania Democrats have just nominated their ticket and are getting into line to do battle with Quay. Of course there is no likelihood of Pennsylvania going democratic, yet there is a lively fight on.

The Grand Army Encampment in Louisville symbolizes a reunited country as was shown on Wednesday last when 50,000 veterans paraded on Southern soil with two ex-confederates in front, the parade taking over four hours to pass a given point. There were many old and feeble men in line; and the time is not far distant when the old soldiers will become less and less in number.

The President, with his family, has not yet returned from Gray Gables, and the scene around the White House presents no signs of life at all. The City itself presents that dull scene which is always apparent at the end of the summer. There are several Cabinet officers absent but all are expected back in a short time.

The political lights of the country will soon begin to gather here and in the course of a couple of months Washington will again be the point to which all eyes are directed.

Late Literary News.

Fiction and travel are the strong points of the September Cosmopolitan, which by the way, illustrates better than any previous number the perfection of its plant for printing a magazine of the highest class. Conan Doyle, H. H. Boyesen, and Clark Russell are among the story tellers. A well-known New York lawyer relates the story of "A Famous Crime"--the murder of Dr. Parkman by Professor Webster. A delightful sketch of "An English Country House-party" is from the pen of Nina Bayre Smith--the house at which she visited being no less than the historic Abbotford, still occupied by the direct descendants of Sir Walter Scott.
"The Realm of the Wonderful" is descriptive of the strange forms of life discovered by science in the ocean's depths, and is superbi-ly illustrated in a surprising and marvelous way by the author, who is a member of the Smithsonian staff. An article on Cuba is timely. Without bothering the reader with unnecessary description of the famous yacht now so much talked of, The Cosmopolitan presents four full-page illustrations showing these noted boats. Thomas Moran again contributes a series of the exquisite landscapes of western scenery, twelve in number, illustrating an article by Col. John A. Cookerill, on "Modern Utah." And it may be said that no more beautifully illustrated number of The Cosmopolitan has ever been given the public.

The WESTERN TRAIL is published quarterly by the CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND & PACIFIC RAILWAY.
It tells how to get a farm in the West, and it will be sent to you gratis for one year. Send name and address to "Editor Western Trail, Chicago," and receive it one year free.

Stock Brands.

Every man with 50 head of cattle or upward should advertise his brand in this paper, and thus within a month, perhaps, regain stock which has been missing for weeks, and which he has given up as lost. Our circulation throughout this section is wide and steadily increasing, and your brand inserted in these columns will become familiar to the stockmen and settlers of the southwest, largely increasing your chances of regaining strayed or stolen stock. Send in your orders.

GREAT ROCK ISLAND ROUTE TO THE EAST.
BEST DINING CAR SERVICE IN THE WORLD.
The Rock Island is foremost in adopting any advantage calculated to improve speed and give that luxury, safety and comfort that popular patronage demands. Its equipment is thoroughly complete with vestibuled trains, magnificent dining cars, sleepers and chair coaches, all the most elegant, and of recently improved patterns.
Faithful and capable management and polite, honest service from employees are important items. They are a double duty--to the Company and to travelers--and it is sometimes a task difficult of accomplishment. Passengers on this line will find little cause for complaint on that ground.

REMEMBER
The Great Rock Island Route runs all regular trains to Englewood suburban station, close to World's Fair grounds, and you can save time and trouble by getting off at that point and avoid the crowd in the city.
